

Western and Central North Dakota

July – September 2013

Climate Outlook

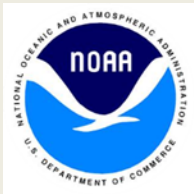

National Weather Service
Bismarck, ND

Climate Outlook Highlights

- July 2013:
 - Near normal temperatures and precipitation are favored for North Dakota.
- July – September 2013:
 - For most of the state, near normal temperatures are forecast.
 - The exception are parts of the west where above normal temperatures are forecast.
 - Near normal precipitation is expected statewide.

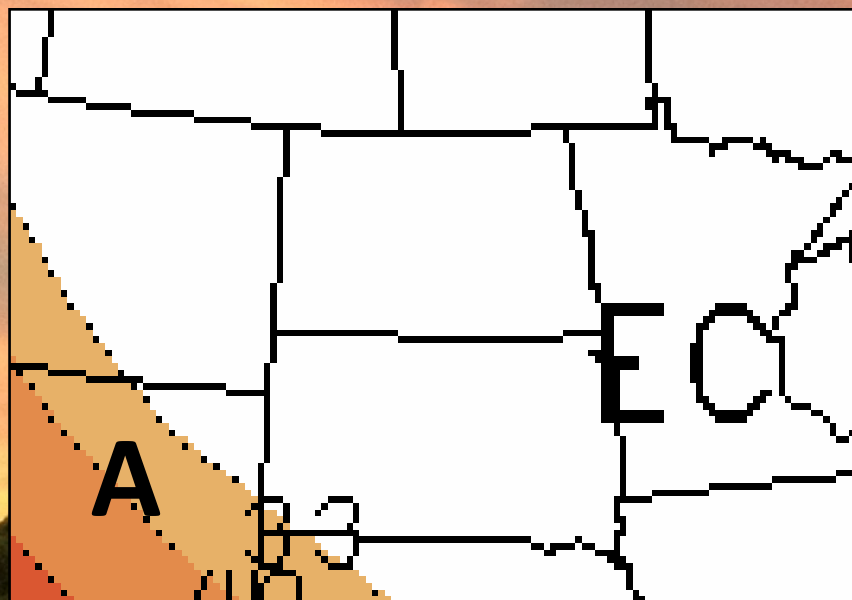

Monthly Outlook

July 2013

Temperature

Precipitation

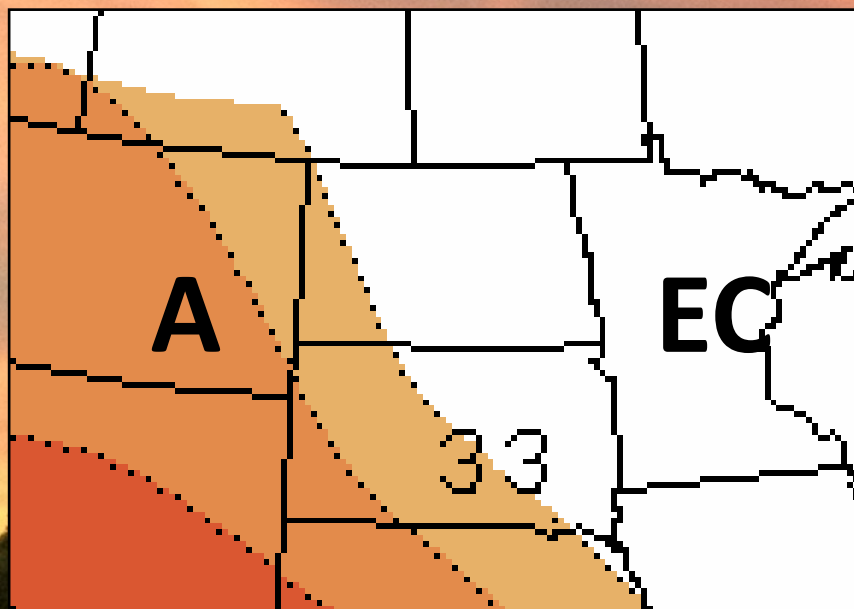

Three Month Outlook

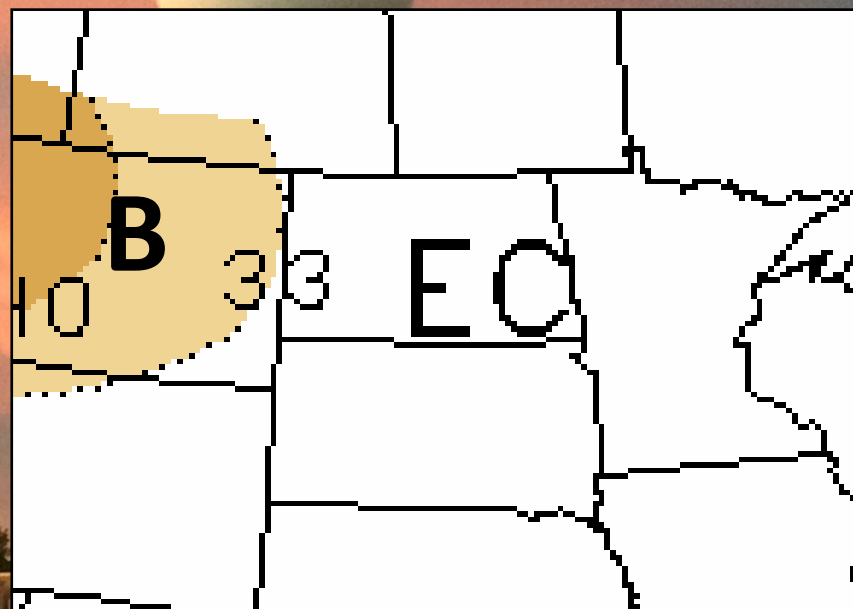

July – September 2013

Temperature

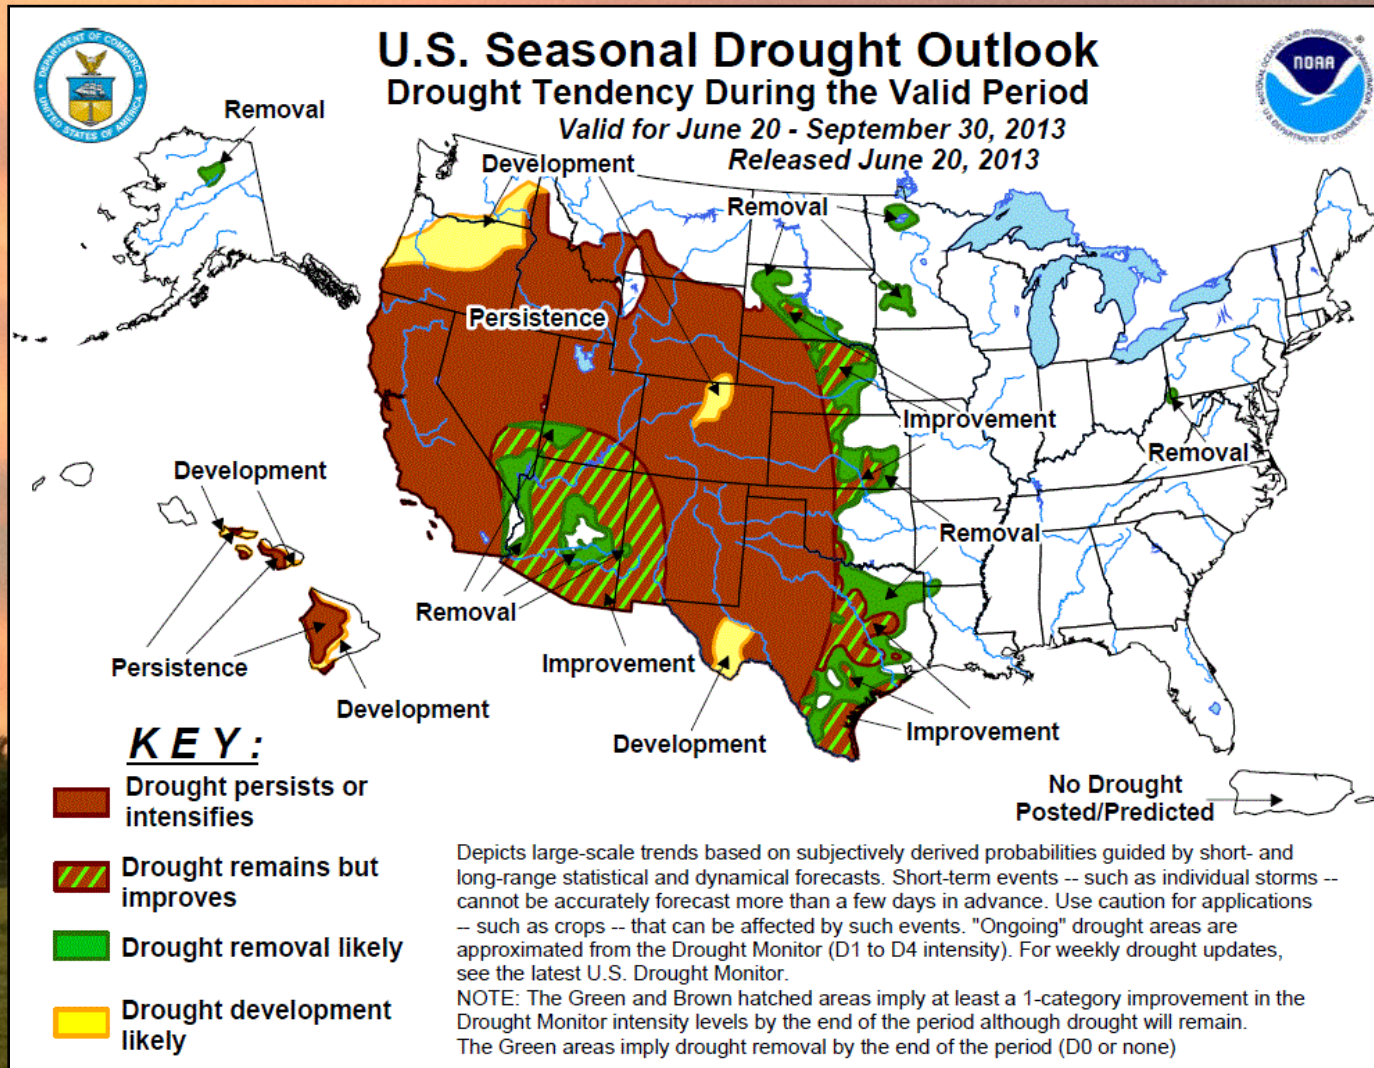

Precipitation

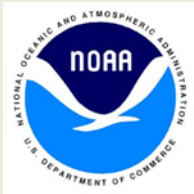

Drought Outlook

June 20 – September 30, 2013

Climate Outlook Highlights

- July 2013:
 - Near normal temperatures and precipitation are favored for North Dakota.
- July – September 2013:
 - For most of the state, near normal temperatures are forecast.
 - The exception are parts of the west where above normal temperatures are forecast.
 - Near normal precipitation is expected statewide.